PROGRAMME

WELCOME TO THE SHOW!

Good evening, and welcome to our 80th production; we hope you enjoy the evening as much as we have. Although some of our long-standing members have performed with the group at the Danson Festival in the early 2000s, this production has given a refreshingly different experience to our new members who have not performed 'away from home' before: last night, we performed at The Stables at Charlton House, as there was much interest in giving their regular clients a different type of event.

This is the fourth time we have performed a murder mystery by Claire Jones – 'Barbecues R Murder', 'Murder At The New Vicarage' and 'Murder Backstage' also gave our regular audience members a chance to enjoy a meal with a play. Once again, be on the lookout for the movement of key props and subtle lines of dialogue that can help you find the culprit. Our production of 'It's Never Too Late' will be a little different from the previous plays, as we will be performing among the audience, and there will be a chance to ask the suspects some questions – a more immersive and engaging performance for all.

While the play is simple enough to rehearse, no production is plain-sailing. Sadly, two cast members had to stand down: we thank Lisa and Paul for helping to get the production moving, and especially thank Lindsey for taking on 'Cissie', and Mark, who stepped into the role of 'Mike' just a couple of weeks ago –learning so many lines so quickly shows real asset to the group. It does highlight that we really could do with some more members (on both sides of the curtain), so please do get in touch if you would like to join us for future productions. We'd also like to welcome Lucie to her first production, and also welcome Martin, Sue and Sue back to the stage for their first appearances on stage for a few years.

We hope that you enjoy your evening, and look forward to seeing you at our next production. We are back on the road next Saturday, performing this play at Christ Church Bexleyheath – do recommend us to your friends, or maybe you could come for seconds!

THE PLAY

At a reunion of the Sutton County High School, what could possibly go wrong? When old school friends meet again after several decades, long-forgotten passions and jealousies surface. Who dated who? Who got the most detentions? Who gossiped about who? And why would you murder someone in a public place?

THE CAST

MARK FOULDS as Mike Macdonald

Before joining us, Mark had appeared onstage with the Alexandra Players, and had played percussion at a range of venues. He first appeared with us as Peter 'Venture Man' Graham in our last production, I'll Get My Man, proving himself as a skilled actor. We are most grateful to him for stepping into this role at the last minute, and look forward to seeing the talents he has to offer in our upcoming pantomime.

RICHARD PERCIVAL as Stan Sanderson

Richard has portrayed over forty different characters on stage in our productions, including a number of well-known characters such as Bluebeard, the Tinman, Sherlock Holmes and Tinkerbell. He has committed murder a number of times in the past (on stage, of course!), including Murder Backstage and And Then There Were None (when he murdered eight people) will he be the guilty one yet again – you decide!

STEVE MORLEY as Tim Timpson

Steve first appeared on stage in The Roses Of Eyam at just 13 years old; since then, he has appeared in over thirty productions, with backstage roles in others; panto baddies and Stage Manager are his favourite roles. He has also directed three plays, most enjoying the staging and developing special effects featured in the period productions Jekyll And Hyde, The Ghost Train and Hound Of The Baskervilles.

MARTIN STONE as Brett Ballard

We are pleased to welcome Martin back to the stage for his first main role for a few years. Joining us as the panto dame in 1996, he has appeared in a wide range of plays. Martin has been known to break boundaries and try something new, directing our first musical plays, writing the short plays performed at the Danson Festival, and is the only member to have written a play performed on our stage, Pride And Joy.

JULIE EXELL as Moira Macdonald

Julie has been with us since our 1994 production of Aladdin, and has since appeared in 38 plays and pantomimes; memorable characters include Ratty, Robin Hood, the March Hare, and other musical roles. Julie takes a leading role in organising costumes for the plays and pantomimes, ensuring we all look brilliant – sometimes this is done while appearing on stage – this shows how much hard work she puts into the group.

ABBIE WATKINS as Billie Macdonald

Abbie first appeared with the junior chorus of Bluebeard in 2005, and has since appeared in a number leading roles, including Alice (in Wonderland), Princess Penelope (Lady Lollipop, our production for young players), Princess Aurora (Sleeping Beauty '15) – and who could forget the pantomime snail in The Three Musketeers? Will she be the innocent young girl in this production, or will we see another side of her?

LINDSEY CLAYTON as Cissie Sanderson

Once again, we are most grateful to Lindsey, for stepping in to a role just a short time before the production (last time, as the butler in Hound Of The Baskervilles). Lindsey has appeared in every production since joining the group last year, throwing herself into every part with enthusiasm. However, you probably won't be seeing her in the next pantomime, as she tries her hand at directing a show for the first time.

SUE REID as Geraldine Grant

Sue is a long-standing supporter of the group, first appearing in Virtue Triumphant, our fourth production, back in 1992. Although this is her first on-stage appearance since Over My Dead Body (2010), she enjoys watching our plays as much as being part of them. Memorable roles include Gertrude, the golden goose, in Mother Goose '99, and Evonne, the inebriated vicar's wife in Out Of Focus.

RAE CALNAN as Barbara Ballard

Since joining in 1995, Rae has appeared in over thirty productions (not always in speaking roles – Dick Whittington's cat and Nobby the Panda could not talk!); she is also our makeup artist. She has a particular interest in murder mysteries, having directed The Murder Room and And Then There Were None. Rae has appeared in all of our murder evenings, yet has never been the murderer – perhaps she'll be the guilty one today?

SUE ADAMS as Inspector Allaway

A founder member of the group, Sue directed our first ever play (See How They Run '91). She has appeared on stage occasionally over the years, but has directed and produced more often than playing a role. Having had a break from 'active service' and continued to support our productions, Sue returned earlier this year, firstly as panto prompt, then as producer; this is her first appearance on stage since Out Of Focus in 2007.

LUCIE BACHE as DC Potts

We would like to welcome Lucie to her first production with us. Lucie joined the group just a few months ago, looking for a new adventure, and has taken on the role of the detective, questioning the suspects – while this may seem to be a small part, only appearing at the end, there's an awful lot of lines to learn!
