

Pardon Me, Prime Minister!

The action takes place in the Prime Minister's study, 10 Downing Street, London.

Act 1 Scene 1 Early afternoon in Spring

 Scene 2 Five minutes later

 Interval

 Refreshments are available during the interval

Act 2 Scene 1 Fifteen minutes later

 Scene 2 Ten minutes later

A raffle will be held and drawn at each performance

Our thanks to Erith Theatre Guild for the loan of furniture.

Costumes	Christine Edwards & Cast
Properties	Jill Crookham, Julie Crouch
Settings	Dave Adams, Mark Foster
Portraits	George Best
Lighting & Sound	David Batchelor & team
Prompt	Janet Jones
Programme & Poster Design	Dave Barnett
Front of House	Jean & Eric Markham
Refreshments	Elsie Best & team

St Martin's Players is always pleased to receive offers of items that may be of use in productions, whether they be large or small, furniture or properties or costume, if it's in reasonable condition we'll probably say "Ooh! Yes Please!"

The Players (in order of appearance)

Rt Hon George Venables MP	Dave Barnett
Rodney Campbell	Simon Watkins
Miss Frobisher	Patsy Bailey
Rt Hon Hector Cramond MP	Derek Kennedy
Sybil Venables	Christine Edwards
Shirley Springer	Vicky Mummery
Jane Rotherbrook	Rae Calnan
Dora Springer	Kathy Hubbard
A Man	Barry Gavin

Pen Portraits

Simon Watkins, Rodney Campbell, PPS

Those of you who saw Roses will be delighted to know that Rowland and Emott have produced offspring, rumour has it this will curtail Simon's immediate future appearances. Simon impresses at rehearsals with his ability to remember his lines even when very tired and emotional.

Patsy Bailey, Miss Frobisher, Chancellor's secretary

Patsy makes her debut with our group, let us hope it is the first of many appearances.

Derek Kennedy, Hector Cramond, Chancellor of the Exchequer

Derek made his debut for us in The Roses as the old man, Unwin, and "fo-fummed" in Jack & the Beanstalk

Kathy Hubbard, Dora Springer

Kathy was an impressive harridan in When we are Married, her performance in Jack was fair enough, sorry Fairy Nuff

Martin Stone, Director

Martin has chosen a well-written, witty, fast-paced, risqué, farce for his directorial debut following his successful portrayals of Dame, Rev Mompesson and Demon. Let's hope he has chosen a witty, fast-paced cast, some of whom need no encouragement to be risqué.